Monthly calendar for each month (link google calendar)

Weekly log (separated by day) where you can put tasks to do for each day
Put labels on each task to allow for filtering by label (homework, meetings, personal todos, etc)

At the end of each month, present the user with the tasks they haven't done and ask them what they want to do with those tasks

Notebook templates
- Pastel
- dark

Overhead Table of Contents
- Hyperlinks to pages
- Month
    - Calendar (google calendar)
    - Trackers (habit, mood, etc.)
    - Custom spread they choose to make
    - Weekly logs

Create a new page feature
- Premade page templates
- Empty page for user customization

Convert tasks to checklist?

FEATURES WE LIKED!:

- End of Month Prompt: pushes all the residual tasks as a reminder
- Allow the user to create custom labels (similar to labelling for a class)
- Widgets for trackers
- Activity Overviews taken from tracker widget
- Streaks Habit Tracker (?) Circles at the top of the header
- Widget to add pictures + videos
- Save custom templates for pages (select a page or template) animation might be hard
- Duplicating pages
- Empty pages (SIMILAR TO GOODNOTES)?
- Design: notebook type of feel? Or more online platform?
- Handwriting feature? Otherwise clean looking font
- NAME OF PRODUCT? :)
- LaTex support?
- Target Audience: general audience and then it's customizable (fitness water mood etc)
- INSPIRATION: Google Calendar, Github, Notion.so, Goodnotes, OneNote
- Tabs on the top!
- Navigation on side
